

Green politicians in Wales
won't let you down.
They work hard in their communities.
They take the long view.
They care about our future...

Wales' MEPs could be doing so much more. Jake needs just one in six votes on June 4th to become the first Green MEP for Wales and join MEPs Caroline Lucas and Jean Lambert in the European parliament. The elections are run using proportional representation, so every vote for the Green party will count.

Your Lead Wales Green Party Candidate Jake Griffiths

Jake Griffiths is at the top of the Green Party's list for June 4th's European Election. He lives in Cardiff with his wife Carys and three daughters. He works as a manager providing advice to businesses on how they can improve their environmental performance. If elected Jake will spend the next five years working for more jobs in the local economy, insulation for every British home and an international agreement on man made climate change.
